

The Ants

They are small,
but they get a lot done.

The ants are the hard-working helpers of Duckdom.

They sweep the paths,
mend the fences, carry supplies and keep everything running smoothly.

They work together,
they never give up,
and they are always ready to help.

If something needs
doing, you can be sure the ants are already on it.

Duckdom wouldn't be Duckdom without them.

When the ants work,
Duckdom is ready.

Teamwork
makes Duckdom work.

Small. Strong. Busy. Brilliant.
