Lydia

She sees the connections.

Lydia is Duckdom's quiet weaver. She doesn't rush, she observes. From her corner of the world, she notices the little things that others miss.

With patience and care, she weaves strands between people, places and moments, helping Duckdom stay beautifully connected.

You'll often find her high up somewhere peaceful, working on something that might not make sense yet... but usually turns out to be exactly what was needed.

When Lydia is still, Duckdom is stronger.

Lydia's Motto:
*Every thread
has a purpose.*

Not loud. Not hurried. Always connected.
